

Meditation: At the Global Spirituality Mahotsva (March 17, 2024)

Hosted at the Heartfulness Institute Headquarters, Hyderabad India. Approximately 60,000 participants.

Network Coherence significantly increases, starting with the meditation

The Global Spirituality Mahotsva conference organized by the Ministry of Culture of India, brought together leaders from many global wisdom and spiritual traditions with the theme of Inner Peace to World Peace. It was and hosted by the Heartfulness Institutes global headquarters in Kanha Shanti Vanam, near Hyderabad India which has the world's largest meditation center.

On Sunday 3/17/24, the day started with a Heartfulness meditation with approximately 40,000 in attendance, plus 20,000 participating on-line from around the world. The mediation was about 20-minutes long, followed by a number of emotionally moving presentations, including an award of Global Ambassador for Peacebuilding and Faith from the Secretary-General of the Commonwealth to Daaji (Kamlesh Patel), who is the Global Guide of the Heartfulness Movement.
